Your wedding photos should be as unique as you are!

From a rustic barn, to the beach; from the top of a lighthouse to a scrap yard; with your little ones, or your fur babies; with just close family or loads of friends -
No two weddings are the same!

Whether small and intimate; fun and care-free or formal and dignified; full of children and family friendly, or the biggest party of the year - your wedding photo should reflect uniqueness of your special day.

Plan

To ensure your day goes as smoothly as possible, I can work with you as you plan your wedding day to help choose time and settings for your photos.

Post Wedding Day Formals:

Sometimes time, weather or location on the day of your wedding doesn't allow for the type of formal photos you would like to have as a remembrance of your wedding.

A popular option is to book a seperate "Formals Session". Formals sessions take place shortly after your wedding day and usually take place in the evening.

These post wedding day sessions allow for a stress free session of just the two of you in a setting that will take your breath away.
